

Responsive practice education

Increase your knowledge of best practices to deliver responsive, disability-competent care through screenings, and adaptive and inclusive communication.

Responsive practice: Providing healthcare and screening to individuals with disabilities (1.0 CE credit)

Responsive practice: Accessible and adaptive communication (0.5 CE credits)

Utah Department of Health & Human Services

UTAH Disabilities
Advisory Committee

Working together to enhance inclusion

Institute on Disability/UCED

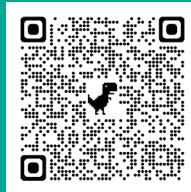

These free on-line trainings helps healthcare providers to:

- Describe disparities in healthcare experienced by people with disabilities.
- Recognize barriers people with disabilities face when accessing healthcare and preventive services.
- Learn strategies and approaches to provide disability-competent, responsive care.

Register and access the trainings anytime at:

Providing healthcare and screenings to individuals with disabilities

Accessible and adaptive communication

